WORK IN THE BIBLE - King James Version

5:20). The Priestly Work of Christ. While a prophet speaks God's words to the people, a priest represents the people before God and represents God before the people. He is a man who stands in the presence of God as a mediator (Heb. 5:1). The priestly work of Christ involves both atonement and intercession.

Whedon's Commentary on the Bible. While it is day "In the terms day, night, light, of John 9:4-5, we recognize some allusion to the night of the blind man's eyes on which he was to pour the light of day. The work to which the Lord alludes is his earthly work, to be performed during his dwelling in the flesh.

John 9:4 - "We must work the works... - Verse-by-Verse

This verse is very close to John 14:12 because in both verses Jesus speaks of "greater works.". Jesus is contrasting here his healing of the lame man on the Sabbath (John 5:1-16) with the greater works that he would do in the future.
