Memorial Hermann Health System's Financial Assistance Policy and Admissions Policy govern how financial assistance is provided. On the basis of these policies, a determination will be made regarding a patient's eligibility for financial assistance. Payment from all other possible payment sources must be exhausted before a patient can be considered for the financial assistance program.

The Memorial de Caen is a museum and war memorial in Caen, Normandy, France commemorating World War II and the Battle for Caen. More generally, the museum is dedicated to the history of the twentieth century, mainly focused on the fragility of peace. Its intention is "pay a tribute to the martyred city of the liberation" but also to tell "what was the terrible story of the 20th century in a ...

The Tanaka Memorial (Tanaka Jōsō Bun) is an alleged Japanese strategic planning document from 1927 in which Prime Minister Baron Tanaka Giichi laid out for Emperor Hirohito a strategy to take over the world. The authenticity of the document was long accepted and it is still quoted in some Chinese textbooks, but historian John Dower states that "most scholars now agree that it ...

A Note on Terminology " Advocates of free translation have invented several terms to refer to their approach. The term dynamic equivalence was coined by Eugene Nida in an attempt to avoid the negative connotations of the word paraphrase. Later, Nida used the term functional equivalence to avoid the negative connotations which quickly became attached to dynamic equivalence.
